Key Largo Food & Wine Kicks-off August 1st

Food and Wine lovers will delight in the first ever Key Largo Food and Wine Festival presented by the Upper Keys Business Group. Sponsored by Premier Beverage of South Florida the Festival features nine days of food and wine events to please everyone.
Eighteen businesses are participating with three to four different events at a variety of locations daily. The Festival serves up an eclectic mix of themes aimed to please everyone's budget and palette.The festival calendar kicks-off on Friday August 1st with free wine samplings at Tradewinds Liquors and a six-course Italian extravaganza at Sundowner's Restaurant with local celebrity cook Dr. Jim Boilini. Each course is paired with a rustic Italian wine.Other restaurants like the Key Largo Conch House and Anthony's Restaurant are pairing food wine, art and music. In their garden area the Key Largo Conch House is serving appetizers 'Conch Every Which Way' complimented with wines andfeaturing guest artists Pasta and friends on hand. Join Anthony's Restaurant in Tavernier Town for a 'Return to Venice', Venetian wines, a special menu, live music, art and more.International fare will be featured at several restaurants, Snappers Restaurant is presenting 'Wines from Around the World' all paired with dishes from the same countries.
Gilbert's Restaurant features 'A Trip to Germany' and Café Largo 'Mediterranean Nights'.
Asian influences are represented with a source of plentiful sushi-grade fish. Num Thai is to host a sushi and Thai-cuisine affair featuring complimentary premium cold sake.Other anticipated festival highlights include a variety of gourmet and Keys Cuisine menus that show off superlative vintages and local culinary talents. Whether featuring succulent seafood, international influences or decadent delights, they offer
