Bartender of the Month Jessica Morris at Paradise Pub

Jessica Morris went from growing up on a farm in Kansas to an apartment in Miami, majoring in Journalism at FIU. She is a scuba instructor, an accomplished under water photographer and a fabulous bartender at the Paradise Pub. So hard work is no stranger to Jessica. In fact she thrives on it.

As we are talking, Morris casually reaches in the cooler, pulls out a bottle of beer and sets it on the bar before the customer even makes it through the front door. The good-looking guys know that Jessica's shift starts at 5 and they start pouring in. This comes as no surprise because Jessica is beautiful, intelligent, a very nice person and in her own words "perpetually single".

"I love working at the Paradise Pub with Dawn, Jill and Mike."
- Jessica Morris

Paradise Pub with Dawn, Jill and Mike. We are a good team here," says Morris. There is always something going on at the Paradise Pub. They have live music every Saturday, karaoke with Gwen on Tuesdays, free pool on Mondays and a famous $1.99 breakfast every morning.

"Everyone knows that we have the best cheeseburger in paradise," says Morris. "But what they don't know is that we have really great happy hour specials. For instance you can get a pitcher of beer and a cheese pizza for only $10."

With Jessica Morris you can get a diving lesson, an underwater photo of yourself, and get served great pizza and beer at the Paradise Pub... Who knows she might even write a story about it for the Coconut Telegraph!
