Bartender of the Month Mike Neves at Buzzard's Roost

The Coconut Telegraph is proud to have Mike Neves from the Buzzard's Roost admitted into the esteemed Bartender of the Month Hall of Fame. Who would think that a graduate of Indiana State University with a BS degree in Sports and Recreation Management would be serving the largest ice cold draft beer and the best quesadillas in town? The Buzzard's Roost is nestled in the Garden Cove Marina at mile marker 106 Oceanside. It has always had a reputation for great food and is a favorite get away for the Ocean Reef crowd.

In the three years that Mike has been bartending at the "Roost" he has made many friends and out of town visitors come back just to see him and his "Magical wishing

Well". Mike hopes to someday visit Colorado and see and ski the mountains when he tires of his perch at the "Roost" but this writer doubts that will happen. From his outdoor bar you can see everything that happens in the busy marina. Down the canal is Captain Slates Atlantis Dive Shop and past that is the Atlantic Ocean and a little further out you can almost see Cuba. What a view! If you are fond of art you'll be delighted with the many local artist's paintings that decorate the walls, but the Buzzard's Roost is a fabulous work of art in its self. Stop in and see Mike for Happy Hour from 4 to 6. Key West Ale, Yling Yling, and Killians draft are $2.00 and domestic drafts are $1.00. Save me a seat!
