Thank You to the entire Staff of Mariners Hospital

Hello, My name is Captain Skyler Chapman. I checked in the hospital on Sept. 9th in very poor condition and was admitted for 18 days for major surgery. I am writing an open letter to the Doctors, Nurses, PCTs Radiology and all of the staff behind the scenes. The treatment I received was nothing less than fantastic, caring and heartwarming.

I felt like my family was there taking care of me. I would especially like to thank the staff that I personally knew and who cared for me over and above their duties. Doctors, please understand that all of you do a wonderful and a difficult job. As for the Nurses and PCTs, you are the true heroes and heroines that are on the front line (so to speak) you do the treating with caring and kind hearts. I thank you for that.

Through all of my difficult times and pain you were there for me. I will cherish always in my mind every day thinking of you and your selflessness. THANK YOU from the bottom of my heart, mind and soul.

Capt. Skyler Chapman

Artists of the Month
Nadine and Glenn
Original Lobster Trap Art

In downtown Tavernier at mile marker 90 there is a little restaurant simply named Craig's where I stopped in for a bite to eat. As I waited for my mouth watering (best I ever had) Reuben sandwich I noticed some interesting artwork on the walls. I asked the waitress, Kitty, about it and she explained that a local couple painted them and made the frames out of old lobster traps.

The artwork on Craig's walls really reflects what the Florida Keys are all about. I was enthralled so I checked out the artists on the Internet.

The artists, Nadine and Glenn, retired from their South Florida nursery business and moved to Lower Matecumbe in 1999.

Three years later the couple took an art course at the local community college. It turned out they were really good at it and soon developed their own distinct style.

To go with their artwork Glenn started recycling old lobster traps from the Florida Keys waters and crafting them into beautiful frames. They are beautiful and unique. No two are alike.

Then in January of 2003 the couple participated in their first art show. It was a success so the pair decided to continue with their work. You can now find their work at local art shows and in galleries from Key West to Key Largo. Or stop by Craig's Restaurant or check out their website at www.LobsterTrapArt.com.
