Letter to the Editor

"Drinker of the Month"

As I sat musing about my favorite newspaper of all time, "The Coconut Telegraph", I realized I enjoy everything about this paper. The stories, pictures, articles etc. Most of all I like what I call "the best of the month spots". There is the 'Artist of the Month, the 'Bartender of the Month', 'Entertainer of the Month' and maybe a 'Business of the Month'. However, something is missing from my favorite rag. This is the Keys so, where is the "Drinker of the month"? I don't mean the person who drinks more than anyone else. He or she wouldn't deserve "The of the Month Title". The bartender's favorite, say at Gilberts, Sharky's, Snappers, Snooks, Cactus Jacks or anywhere. The customer a bar staff is happy to see. A customer who never forgets to say Hello, how are you, how's the family, also one who never forgets a gratuity. I, myself, have only missed about 20 happy hours in the last 45 years, only because hospitals don't have happy hours. Denise, lets start the "Drinker of the month". You make up the necessary criteria.

Editorial: Have a Heart

I was sitting in a local club having a beer and taking a rest from my hectic schedule in December. Though I claim to be a tough cookie it was obvious that I was reduced to tears in public when The Sunshine Band played Christmas music so beautifully. It was my first Christmas since my mother had passed away and my heart was still breaking. A person that I haven't spoken to in years was there and couldn't resist the urge to kick me when I was down. She staggered up to me and slurred the question, "What was your favorite food your mother cooked you for Christmas?" I was shocked, speechless and horrified that someone could be so evil. My motto is "If you don't like someone, leave them alone, stay away from them". Truly evil people won't give you that common courtesy. It makes them happy to inflict pain on people that simply choose to ignore them.

When the death of a loved one occurs it is a time for old and new friends to come together to help and show their support.

Chuck Buckles was a friend and a hero. He was killed New Years Day saving his five-year-old son Christian and wife Michelle in a tragic bicycle accident on US 1. Chuck was able to push Christian and Michelle out of danger but he was killed by oncoming traffic while his family helplessly watched. There will be a benefit for Chuck's family Sunday February 21st at the Pilot House. Chuck was a former employee of Wyland Galleries in Islamorada. Wyland is generously donating a $1,000 piece of art for the auction. Because Chuck was very proud of his art background we are asking all local artists to please donate a piece of art for this cause. Please call me 305-304-2837 or Michelle Tarolli 305-451-3452 if you want to donate or help.

Book lovers rejoice! James T. Hall will be at Moore Books Saturday Feb. 6th at 2 p.m. to sign his books. While you are there pop your head in the back door and say hello to the White Rhino. I thank my lucky stars and house full of furniture that Mac is back.

The First Annual Stone Crab & Seafood Festival was a huge success. Congratulations to all who organized and participated.

Valentines Day is this month. Remember the local entertainers that sing their hearts out for you by dropping a buck or two in the bucket.

Key Players prepare for their 100th production!

Dearly Beloved

Miss Geneva (Charlene Sammis), wedding coordinator

is the story of a completely dysfunctional but loveable Texas family in the throes of a series of life-changing events.

The Futrelle Sisters are throwing a wedding. Frankie has almost made herself sick with elaborate preparations for her daughter's antebellum-inspired wedding, and the rumor mill in their small town of Fayro, Texas, is working overtime. No surprise there, the Futrelle Sisters have never been strangers to gossip. After all, they survived the scandalous breakup of their almost-famous gospel singing trio, The Sermonettes. But Twink's desperate attempts to get her boyfriend of 15½ years down the aisle, Frankie's ongoing conversations with their dead mother, and Honey Raye's tendency to race to the altar at every opportunity have kept tongues wagging for years.

Miss Geneva (Charlene Sammis) lets John Curtis (Dewey Engstrom) know that he's not the only one packing heat.

The Sermonettes Reunite! (Nancy Siljander, Marianne Billings, and Fatima DaSilva)

Frankie hopes that she can pull off one "final Futrelle occasion" with elegance and style with the help of the cantankerous wedding coordinator, Miss Geneva, who runs the local floral shop/bus depot. But on the day of the nuptials, Frankie's hope dims when she discovers Twink's alternative solution to an expensive catered wedding dinner is a potluck supper sponsored by Clovis Sanford's House of Meat.

When the prodigal Honey Raye arrives at the church in skintight gold lamé, consumed by hot flashes and a steely determination to right old family wrongs, Frankie's hope is shaken. Then word reaches the church that the couple has eloped.

The sisters pull together to find ways to keep the unsuspecting guests in the pews while a highway patrolman races off to track down the runaway bride and groom.

Entertainer of the Month Michael DiMaggio

By Jenna Steele

In the keys we have our fair share of music. You can go to any bar or usually any restaurant and hear awesome music. But if you have not heard Michael DiMaggio yet then you are truly missing out on one of the best musical experiences in the Keys. Born and raised in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Michael has been in many bands but has recently decided to experience the solo route.

"My uncle always said, 'If you can write it, you can sing it,' he always encouraged me to be a singer." With regular gigs at Outback Steakhouse, Snook's Bayside, and Coconuts, he has been making a big splash in a little pool. Back in Philly Michael started his music career at a young age; at twelve he started taking guitar lessons. He took guitar lessons for six months before his teacher told him, "You're good enough, go start a band." And he did, forming a band in his mother's basement with his brother David, and childhood friends. Getting their first gig at sixteen, they performed at a horseshoe tournament. After years of playing there and band lineup changes, Michael moved to Key Largo. Michael got his start here in the keys when he first started playing gigs with his band "Stereo Underground", which consist of his brother David DiMaggio, and his friend Mark Mullen. Hitting local late night spots like "Coconuts", they started to gain a following. After a few years of playing as a band Michael decided to try his best at being a solo artist, while still playing with the band. Why did he decide to take this route, and why not sooner? "The economy, and then I got a job to fill in for Bobby Brown at Coconuts and I loved it, plus I didn't want to do tiling anymore. I stayed in the band because I enjoy

Choose Love What We Are Made of

Love is often presented as the opposite of fear, but true love is not opposite anything. True love is far more powerful than any negative emotions, as it is the environment in which all things arise. Negative emotions are like sharks swimming in the ocean of love. All things beautiful and fearful, ugly and kind, powerful and small, come into existence, do their thing, and disappear within the context of this great ocean. At the same time, they are made of the very love in which they swim and can never be separated. We are made of this love and live our whole lives at one with it, whether we know it or not.

It is only the illusion that we are separate from this great love that causes us to believe that choosing anything other than love makes sense or is even possible. In the relative, dualistic world of positive and negative, darkness and light, male and female, we make choices and we learn from them. This is exactly what we are meant to be doing here on earth. Underlying these relative choices, though, is the choice to be conscious of what we are, which is love, or to be unconscious of it. When we choose to be conscious of it, we choose love. We will still exist in the relative world of opposites and choices and cause and effect, and we will need to make our way here, but doing so with an awareness that we are all made of this love will enable us to be more playful, more joyful, more loving and wise, as we make our way. Ultimately, the choices we make will shed light on the love that makes us all one, enabling those who have forgotten to return to the source.

This world makes it easy to forget this great love, which is part of why we are here. We are here to remember and, when we forget to remember again, to choose love.

Bartender of the Month Tanner Schaab at Sharkey's Pub

"Tanner is a great bartender and a really nice guy, but it's his good looks that drive the women crazy", says Spencer Smith, a co-worker at Sharkey's Pub in downtown Key Largo.

Originally from Portland Maine, Tanner Schaab found his way to the Keys 10 years ago. Since landing here he worked as a bartender at the Ocean Reef Club, The Big Fish and the Pilot House before firmly planting himself at Sharkey's Pub for the last seven years.

"You can't beat this place. It has great food and affordable drinks, that's why it's where the locals hang out here," says Tanner. "If you love sports then this is the place to be and we also have entertainment six nights a week. The owners, Paul and Adam, really care about their customers and employees, we are one big happy family!"

Speaking of family, Tanner is the proud father of 2-year-old son Connor. When he is not working weekends at Sharkey's he owns and operates 'Expert Carpet, Tile & Upholstery Cleaning'. When Anny Bannanny heard that she swooned, dropped her drink and fell face first on the floor. When she came to, she said, "Tanner is my dream man! He can serve me a drink and clean my house!"

For expert bartending visit Tanner at Sharkey's Pub on Friday, Saturday or Sunday. For expert cleaning call 305-619-9697. Tell him Anny Bannanny sent you.

Islamorada Full of Poop?

Dear Anny Bannanny,
I am a live aboard boat owner within the Village of Islamorada. I was recently informed that Monroe County is no longer providing pump out services to vessels in Islamorada because Islamorada is incorporated. Although I understand that Monroe County taxpayers shouldn't have to foot the bill for our poop, what I am worried about is that many boat owners without the luxury of an economical pump out boat will dump their sewage overboard! That would really mess up the pristine waters of the Fishing Capital of the World and the surrounding waters of Monroe County. Why isn't Islamorada doing something about this? Are all the bureau-craps constipated?

Yours truly,
Full of It

Dear Full of it,
From what Anny Bannanny has heard, the county has tried to strike a deal with Islamorada on several occasions but Islamorada would not comply with the county's simple request for a place to dock the pump out boat and a pump out station. Why do you think they call it the "Village of Idiots"? You are on the right track by contacting Anny Bannanny but you need to pursue this further. Call the Free Press 305-853-7277 and the Reporter 305-852-3216, and call the Islamorada Village Council, Mayor Don Achenberg, Michael Reckwerdt, Deb Gillis, Dave Boerner and Jill Zima Borski at 305-664-6400. Tell them that Islamorada needs an enema!

Sincerely,
Anny Bannanny

Quote of the Day

"Whatever you give a woman, she will make greater. If you give her sperm, she'll give you a baby. If you give her a house, she'll give you a home. If you give her groceries, she'll give you a meal. If you give her a smile, she'll give you her heart. She multiplies and enlarges what is given to her.

So, if you give her any crap, be ready to receive a ton of poop."

Entertainer of the Month

playing with my brother, Dave, and my friends Mark and Jason Conord and creating original music, I just wish I would have done this five years ago." What is the secret to keep a band together while their lead singer is also doing solo gigs? Michael stated, "Each person has to carry some responsibility and be conscious of other people's feelings. I think the thing that breaks most bands up is egos." So, not the typical egotistical lead singer here folks. And how does Michael feel about turning his passion for music into a full time job? "The good thing is making money doing what I love; it's the most fulfilling job I've ever had. The bad thing is sometimes treating it as job and losing some of the excitement that made me love it in the first place." But Michael is a very eclectic musician playing covers of classic rock, alternative rock, reggae and indie, he has a diverse musical influences. "I have a lot of different influences for different reasons. My favorite singer would have to be Eddie Vedder from Pearl Jam, my favorite song-writer would have to be Jeff Tweedy from Wilko, and my favorite guitarist is Jimmy Page from Led Zeppelin." On Tuesday nights Michael hosts Open Mic Night at Coconuts restaurant, so if you want to dust of your old instruments come join Michael. And if you want to hear this month's Musician of the Month you can catch him four to five days at different locations in the keys.
