

Islamorada Full of Poop?

Dear Anny Bannanny,
I am a live aboard boat owner within the Village of Islamorada. I was recently informed that Monroe County is no longer providing pump out services to vessels in Islamorada because Islamorada is incorporated. Although I understand that Monroe County taxpayers shouldn't have to foot the bill for our poop, what I am worried about is that many boat owners without the luxury of an economical pump out boat will dump their sewage overboard! That would really mess up the pristine waters of the Fishing Capital of the World and the surrounding waters of Monroe County. Why isn't Islamorada doing something about this? Are all the bureau-craps constipated?

Yours truly,
Full of It

Dear Full of it,
From what Anny Bannanny has heard, the county has tried to strike a deal with Islamorada on several occasions but Islamorada would not comply with the county's simple request for a place to dock the pump out boat and a pump out station. Why do you think they call it the "Village of Idiots"? You are on the right track by contacting Anny Bannanny but you need to pursue this further. Call the Free Press 305-853-7277 and the Reporter 305-852-3216, and call the Islamorada Village Council, Mayor Don Achenberg, Michael Reckwerdt, Deb Gillis, Dave Boerner and Jill Zima Borski at 305-664-6400. Tell them that Islamorada needs an enema!

Sincerely,
Anny Bannanny

Quote of the Day

"Whatever you give a woman, she will make greater. If you give her sperm, she'll give you a baby. If you give her a house, she'll give you a home. If you give her groceries, she'll give you a meal. If you give her a smile, she'll give you her heart. She multiplies and enlarges what is given to her.

So, if you give her any crap, be ready to receive a ton of poop."

Entertainer of the Month

playing with my brother, Dave, and my friends Mark and Jason Conord and creating original music, I just wish I would have done this five years ago." What is the secret to keep a band together while their lead singer is also doing solo gigs? Michael stated, "Each person has to carry some responsibility and be conscious of other people's feelings. I think the thing that breaks most bands up is egos." So, not the typical egotistical lead singer here folks. And how does Michael feel about turning his passion for music into a full time job? "The good thing is making money doing what I love; it's the most fulfilling job I've ever had. The bad thing is sometimes treating it as job and losing some of the excitement that made me love it in the first place." But Michael is a very eclectic musician playing covers of classic rock, alternative rock, reggae and indie, he has a diverse musical influences. "I have a lot of different influences for different reasons. My favorite singer would have to be Eddie Vedder from Pearl Jam, my favorite song-writer would have to be Jeff Tweedy from Wilko, and my favorite guitarist is Jimmy Page from Led Zeppelin." On Tuesday nights Michael hosts Open Mic Night at Coconuts restaurant, so if you want to dust of your old instruments come join Michael. And if you want to hear this month's Musician of the Month you can catch him four to five days at different locations in the keys.
