

Mark Stanton Joins Centennial Bank Lending Team

Centennial Bank is pleased to welcome Mark Stanton to the commercial lending team. Mark joins as a Vice President and Commercial Loan Officer. "We are very excited to have Mark join our Centennial family," said Michael Carrigan, Executive Vice President/Senior Lender, South Florida. "He comes to us as a career banker with many years of lending experience, the last decade in Key West. Mark will be a great asset to the bank and a terrific resource for our commercial customers."

Currently Treasurer for Monroe Association for Remarkable Citizens, when asked what he likes best about Centennial Bank, Mark smiled, "It's nice to be at a bank that is so clearly dedicated to helping the community."

Originally from Pittsfield, MA, Stanton graduated from Roger Williams University in Bristol, RI with a BS in Management and a minor in Economics and holds certifications in commercial lending from Mortgage Bankers Association of America, Massachusetts Bankers Association School of Commercial Lending and Robert Morris Associates OMEGA. Stanton joins Centennial Bank following 11 years in commercial lending at the former TiB (now Capital) Bank.

Centennial Bank, a HomeBancshares (NASDAQ: HOMB) company, is a full-service financial institution with branches throughout Arkansas and Florida. For more information, please visit www.my100bank.com.

Good News for Keys Music Lovers

If you love the kind of music usually found only in big city concert halls, rejoice. There is cause for celebration from the Lower Keys to the Upper Keys! The Florida Keys Concert Association announces an impressive six-concert offering for 2013, at a great price of $85 for all six concerts, making the cost of each individual show about $14!

The program begins Jan. 21-22, 2013 with the Dukes of Dixieland (who have sold out the Hollywood Bowl), followed by the world-famous Glenn Miller Orchestra on Jan. 28-29. For those without season tickets, seats for the first two concerts are $40 each. The last four concerts include Opera Highlights, acclaimed pianist Fred Moyer, the highly-regarded Jupiter String Quartet, and The Philadelphia Virtuoso Chamber Orchestra on March 16 and 18, at $25 each.

All shows begin at 7:30 p.m. In the Middle Keys, the Dukes and Glenn Miller will be held in the auditorium at Marathon High School on Sombrero Beach Road. The last four concerts will be at San Pablo Church, 122nd Street - Ocean in Marathon. In the Upper Keys, all six shows will be in the auditorium at Island Community Church, MM 83.3 Bayside.

To purchase your season ticket, send a check for $85 ($135 for Middle Keys Preferred Seating Tickets) to FKCA Middle Keys Series, PO Box 522636, Marathon, FL 33052-2636 or to FKCA, Upper Keys Series, PO Box 2066, Islamorada, FL 33036. Tickets will be mailed in late December or held at the door for pick up before the concerts. Any adult with tickets may bring their children, under 18, free, pending seating availability.
