

OOPS!

We at the Al Flutie Over-The-Hill Rip Off Sailfish Tournament didn't get the 3rd place trophy to the winners until The Friday Night Radio Show at Wahoo's with Capt. Bill Kelly February 17th.

Congratulations to : John Fuechsel, and Brian Reynolds (not pictured) and Capt. Jon Reynolds and Gary Salyers. Thanks to all for their patience.

FOR MUSIC AND DANCING

$15 SUGGESTED DONATION AT THE DOOR INCLUDES APPETIZERS FROM LOCAL RESTAURANTS. BEVERAGES WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE.

Michelle Snyder was our Program Director for many years and it has been two years since her passing. We are going to honor her with her favorite things: music, dancing and eating. As a young woman growing up in Scotland, she never went to the Prom in High School, but she made sure that our clients were able to attend. She organized everyone to have escorts, corsages, formal wear and a very nice dinner. The Prom was a total success with lots of fun and laughter and pictures (she loved pictures). She herself looked like a debutant—just beautiful with the biggest smile.

We are going to be less formal in honoring her, with music by The Sunshine Band at the beautiful ocean side Coconut Cove Resort and Marina. We will have prizes for The Best Dressed and bring your own photos of your Prom and win a prize for The Best Dressed Back Then. We want to thank Paul and Magda at The Coconut Cove Resort, Community Bank-Tavernier and Vics Auto Tech for their generous donations toward the Spring Fling. If you would also like to join us as a sponsor please call Corinne at (305) 852-3282 or visit our Thrift Store at MM 90 ocean side in Tavernier.

Dear Anny Bannanny

Dear Anny Bannanny,

I am a federal employee who loves my job and I work very hard. Lately a middle-aged, female co-worker has been trying everything under the sun to get me fired. I have tried every possible way to make peace with this woman, who has been at the job much longer than I, because I have children to support and can't afford to lose my job. Still she attacks me every chance she gets. I just don't understand why someone would go to such trouble to try and have our supervisors look down on me. I am no threat to her! Help me please.

Sincerely,
Frightened

Dear Frightened,

You may think you are no threat to her but the reality is, you are and that makes you a target. You're not paranoid. You truly are being sabotaged.

In a world where jobs are being eliminated; companies are keeping the newer, lower pay scale employees and giving the boot to the older ones close to retirement that are costing them more money. Your nemesis probably knows she's incompetent and at risk of being replaced, making you a direct threat to her. You are younger, fresher, and gung ho, where she is doing the bare minimum to get by and doesn't want to step up her game to compete. It's easier to just badmouth you.

This person probably has her nose so far up the bosses you-know-what that it's dripping with poo.

Anny Bannanny's advice to you is to avoid this psychotic scum-bag bully. If you find yourself in a situation where you must interact with her, document everything. Be sure to include her attitude, tone of voice and eye contact. Details! Keep a journal just in case the time comes where you need to produce proof of harassment to your boss and if you get no satisfaction there you may need a lawyer that specializes in civil rights and discrimination. Do not give up. Anny Bannanny gets bullied all the time but arguing with Anny Bannanny is like mud wrestling with a pig. You don't get anywhere and eventually you begin to realize that the pig actually enjoys it.

Yours truly,
Anny Bannanny
