Key Largo's Chamber of Commerce names new President

Effective October 25, 2012, Key Largo Chamber is proud to announce Craig Cope as the new President. Craig comes to the Key Largo Chamber of Commerce position with thirteen years of sales and marketing experience with a Fortune 500 company in the consumer package goods industry.

Craig Cope, President, KLCOC

Craig and his wife Shanti live in Key Largo and own a small business, Island Decor.

Randy King, who previously held the post, has returned to Arizona for personal reasons.

The Chamber is excited to welcome Craig Cope as their new President and look forward to continued success with him at the helm.

Craig can be reached at the Chamber offices at mile marker 106 bayside in Key Largo or at 305-451-1414.

For the last 11 years Cindy Smith and Jane Wasmund have been spreading some very special Christmas cheer to needy families in the Upper Keys with what has come to be known as Operation Cindy Claus.

Jane and Cindy connected years ago through letters to Santa Claus and have been working to make Christmas happen in a very special way for folks who might not otherwise have a Christmas at all.

Although there are many organizations that raise money and give to families in need, the distinct difference in this project is that it targets families who might not qualify for other programs.

Jane and Cindy need your help to try to spread the spirit to families this year.

They accept monetary donations and gift certificates.

Call Jane at 305-451-2214 or email jwasmund@bellsouth.net if you can help make a happier holiday for families in need.
