The U.S Great Seal Awareness (GSAP) Educational Project

The Diplomacy Center at the U.S. State Department recently unveiled their exhibit commemorating the 225th anniversary of the creation of the Great Seal of the United States, the remarkable emblem that identifies and symbolizes our nation.

With permission from the U.S. Diplomacy Center, we have produced a replica of this exhibit to display at both the Democratic (August 25-28, 2008) and Republican (September 1-4, 2008) national conventions marking the beginning of a nationwide educational effort to help Americans rediscover our founders' original vision of peace and unity.

The last panel of the Diplomacy Center's 10-panel exhibit displays artwork by four elementary school students. We have produced an 11th panel ("Imagine the Possibilities") with 17 more children's artistic interpretations of the Great Seal. (From Treasure Village Montessori students)

Also, a new twelfth panel ("Rising to the Challenge") highlights peace as a pre-dominate founding principle and calls for America's genius to focus on "the power of peace," as the founders' described the olive branch. The 12 panels are displayed on 45" x 84" pull up panels that can be displayed in several configurations.

Working with the author of GreatSeal.com whose 76-page website is a respected educational resource (used by the U.S. Diplomacy Center when researching their exhibit), we are developing a companion site that will provide classroom projects and ways for students to share their visions of America as they learn about the multifaceted design of their national emblem.

On the front of the Great Seal, the well-known American eagle holds the olive branch in its right talon and the bundle of arrows in its left symbolizing "the power of peace and war" entrusted to our elected representatives and us. Our eagle's message is E Pluribus Unum (Out of Many, One).

On the reverse side is the unfinished pyramid and radiant eye of Providence with the Latin mottoes Annuit Coeptis (Providence Favors Our Undertakings) and Novus Ordo Seclorum (A New Order of the Ages) signifying ing the founders' vision that America is an ongoing and enduring endeavor to create a more perfect union.

We believe that this U.S. Great Seal educational project will help unite a divided nation by enriching a nonpartisan national discussion about who we are as a people in relation to the original American Dream envisioned by our founders and embodied in the Great Seal of the United States they designed.

Symbols have a powerful unifying effect. As Joseph Campbell believed: "The next great step for the human family will be to recognize, in our daily lives, the unity that already exists. And a necessary step is the recognition of the common symbols of this unity."
