International Recording Artist "The Barefoot Man" Spotted!

On a trip to the U.S. From Grand Cayman, International recording artist "The Barefoot Man" stopped at the well-known local establishment Lobster Trap Gift Shop and Art Gallery. Owners Nadine & Glenn Lahti met The Barefoot Man more than 25 years ago when he was playing at the Holiday Inn on Seven Mile Beach in Grand Cayman.

Glenn and Nadine and the The Barefoot Man stayed in contact throughout the years, even as The Barefoot Man and his record label began to grow. According to his website, The Barefoot Man is to the Caribbean what Jimmy Buffet is to Key West, but everyone knows him only as "Barefoot." He has composed about 2,000 songs and recorded 500, as well as having written two books.

The Barefoot Man was asked by Paramount Pictures to write music for the film "The Firm" and was mentioned in the novel by John Grisham of the same name. His music is described as "like an island drink concoction: a mixture of calypso with a bit of reggae and soca, garnished with a little country and plenty of humor... put it in a blender and you dance to the beat."

When the Lahti's decided to open their Art Gallery in 2009, they could think of no better music or artist to play than The Barefoot Man and his unique brand of fun island music. Just about any time you walk into the Lobster Trap Gift Shop & Art Gallery, open 7 days a week 8am-6pm, you can hear the island-inspired chords and tongue-in-cheek lyrics.

The employees of the Lobster Trap Gift Shop & Art Gallery got to meet The Barefoot Man when he stopped in to say hello to old friends Nadine & Glenn. He chatted with some of the customers and took a picture with the employees.

The Lobster Trap Gift Shop & Art Gallery carries all of The Barefoot Man's records; they are also available for purchase from www.LobsterTrapArt.com.
