Editorial: Newspaper Caper

the law. It is attacking my business, stealing from me, stealing from every advertiser and the readers who must look elsewhere to find a paper. It is no different than shoplifting!

Taking newspapers is taking away potential customers from the businesses and organizations. Taking money away from them. Each issue of The Coconut Telegraph is extremely important to a sick person when we are providing a free ad to raise money for a benefit. For example please see page 9 for info about a benefit for our much-loved local musician Scott Youngberg. It is also important to all of the non-profit organizations that we support.

To travel around the Upper Keys looking for opportunities to steal papers and dispose of them because he didn't like an article I wrote about a murderer is pretty sick. To keep doing it for several months is certifiably insane. This guy even tried to coerce one of my customers out of advertising in the Coconut Telegraph... she told him to take his business elsewhere and never return to her store.

One witness told me the weasel has even bragged about stealing bundles of papers from the HOSPITAL! Taking papers from sick people and veterans is about as low as you can go!

When is it ok to take newspapers?

Example: If you own a hotel or motel and want them for your guests.

Some people pick up several to mail to relatives across the country. It's common sense.

If your business would like monthly delivery for your customers call 305-304-2837. We are sorry that we are not able to provide subscriptions, instead we provide the newspaper free on the website at www.TheConchTelegraph.com.

IT IS NOT OK TO TAKE THEM TO LINE YOUR BIRD CAGE OR KENNEL. You are, however, welcome to recycle old papers left over from the previous month.

It takes a lot of time and energy to continually distribute papers throughout the month. When papers started disappearing, I ordered more from the printer, raising my print costs, for months.

We pay a monthly fee to a company that provides the rack service at Publix and we try to replenish the stock of papers every day. It is under 24 hour surveillance by a security camera as are many other places.

If you need old newspapers, go to any recycling center and you will find all you need. There is one at MM 100 oceanside. Starting this month we will be recycling our old issues at the new FK Wild Bird Center Hospital in Tavernier.

My lawyer says that by publishing a newspaper it makes me a "public person" and that unfortunately subjects me to some "crazy ass people." I say "Hey, what the heck, its the Keys, there is craziness everywhere." However, the one thing that we locals definitely will not tolerate here is thievery.
