MARC Needs YOU to Clean Out Your Closets!

The MARC Thrift Shop at the Coral Isles Church
(next to Coral Shores High School)
is in need of clothing and household items – anything
new or slightly used,
excluding large furniture.

If you don't have the time to personally deliver it to the store, give the MARC folks a call and they will schedule a volunteer to come to you and pick it up, from Ocean Reef to Islamorada – 305-852-3282.

The Monroe Association for ReMARCable Citizens is a non-profit agency that serves adult clients within Monroe County who have developmental disabilities that include intellectual disabilities (I.Q. 69 or below), cerebral palsy, spina bifida, Prader-Willi Syndrome, and traumatic brain injury sustained prior to age 18.

MARC provides numerous services for their clients. These services are designed to insure that each client receives training and support that enhances his or her individual abilities to understand daily community routines and learn social, self-care, vocational skills and help to increase a client's ability to develop friendships with non-disabled persons.

Make a Difference!

Our "Man of the Millennium" - Hyperbaric Dick

Key Largo legend "Hyperbaric Dick" Rutkowski recently celebrated his 85th birthday at Skippers. In 2013 he won the Reaching Out Award in Las Vegas from DEMA, the most prestigious award in the Diving industry, and was entered into the DEMA Hall of Fame for his extraordinary contributions to the industry.

The Coconut Telegraph wanted to give him a gift that would show the love for him and appreciation for everything he has done for the Upper Keys but that darn DEMA award was a hard act to follow! So, the Coconut Telegraph has bestowed upon him the "Man of the Millennium" Award.

Congratulations Dick!
