

Who's in Bed with the Butler? The Key Players Newest Production!

The Key Players does it again, having surpassed 100 productions in their 37-year hisory, they're still bringing out fresh new productions for our enjoyment.

This one's a fun, inven-tive American farce, with lots of action and fast-paced hilarious dialog.

A California billionaire has bequeathed all of his assets to his only daugh-ter Constance - except the 22-million-dollar yacht he wanted Jose-phine to have, a 25 million-dollar art collec-tion left to Renee and some priceless antique automobiles willed to Marjorie. Constance arrives at her father's mansion with her lawyer, determined to find out who these women are and to buy them off or con-test the will.

The butler seems to hold the key and she learns from him that the three sultry ladies were her father's lovers. She also discovers that the yacht, the art and the cars have vanished, all having been sold to The Bimbo Corporation. Could the butler be behind the shenanigans - and is he carrying on with all of the ladies in question? Does the elderly, deaf house-keeper really have a pet rat? Can the bumbling detective hired by Con-stance really be so inept, linguistically as well as professionally? And why has the butler hired an actress to play his wife?

Mindful Mermaid Cafe and Catering Company

Bringing the carnivore and vegan together is a dream come true.

The Upper Keys most eclectic restaurant is a taste-ful palate sensation and a healthy combination of succu-lent dishes to satisfy any appetite or diet. It is conve-niently located in the Tradewinds Shopping Center, nestled between First State Bank and Florida Keys Jew-elry where the former Chub's Subs and Wings was.

The multi-talented owner and chef is Laurie Crets-inger, a nutritionist who raised her family on healthy food and dreamed of opening a restaurant one day. She catered for local parties, and her friends raved about her original recipes.

One day Deena Hoagland, co-owner and creator of Island Dolphin Care in Key Largo called and asked Laurie to open a food truck outside the world-renowned dolphin therapy building. Cretsinger accepted the challenge and word quickly spread of her delicious and nutritious food.

It was a natural and the business and customers thrived. After a year and a half it was time to spread her wings/fins and expand. She joined forces with Jeremy Yong, who had been running the successful Chub's Subs in the Tradewinds Plaza location at MM 101.4. They combined Jeremy's great sandwiches with Laurie's amazing healthy dishes and it was sensational!

Laurie brought with her a delightful artis-tic decorating scheme, secret recipes and a fantastic staff. It wasn't long before she bought out Jeremy, though he happily contin-ues to work there part-time, making his signa-ture mouthwatering sandwiches.

"I dreamed of opening a restaurant that would serve healthy food and have a good vibe all my life, but when it came down to it I was scared to death!" says the world-traveled Cretsinger. Her husband is an engineer and the family moved 32 times before finally settling in Key Largo. Their son is an executive chef in San Francisco.

Her staff includes Caitlin Teague, a natural product specialist in gluten-free and dairy-free products who under-stands the needs of the cus-tomers. Most recently that are hectic to turn the tables, this one allows you to relax inside in air-conditioned comfort or people watch at the outside cafe tables and read the Coconut Telegraph while your food is cooked to order using the healthiest and freshest ingre-dients. During the season be entertained by Stephen and his gentle guitar music.

My favorites on the menu are the Garlicky Kale salad, and the Chicken Philly, but the Corned Beef Reuben is the best in the world! Top that off with a smoothie and a gluten-free cookie and it's heaven!

If you go grocery shopping on an empty stomach you know you will spend twice as much money and buy all the wrong things. Stop by the Mindful Mermaid and treat yourself. You'll leave with inspiration, so shopping at Publix will be even more of a pleasure.

Visit their website themindfulmermaid.com. They are open for breakfast and lunch Monday through Satur-day 9 am to 5. The mermaid meditates on Sunday.
