Entertainer of the Month - The Beatleman: Jimmy O'Shea

Jimmy O'Shea "The Beatleman" does Paul McCartney better than Paul McCartney, and his show is absolutely mesmerizing. He has the voice, the British accent, the walk, the costumes and mannerisms down to perfection. Close your eyes and you'll be transported back to the 1960s British invasion era. I recently met Jimmy with a little help from my friends who are Beatleman maniacs. They did nothing but twist and shout 'til I agreed we would come together to catch his show. Next thing I looked up and I saw him standing there as his guitar gently weeped - it was a tribute to John Lennon's 75th birthday. It was really something!

Before long we were tapping our feet to the beat and singing along as loud as we could and then too soon it was time for us to say our Hello Goodbye. I made plans to catch his next show at Gilbert's Resort where he was playing Tuesdays in December. On Friday nights he is at the Big Chill from 5 -9. You can also catch his show at the Pilot House and Islamorada Moose. He hopes to soon be playing at the Tavernier Elks and is available for weddings and private parties.

Jimmy's repertoire of music also includes the Eagles, Van Morrison and much, much more. Since O'Shea has been entertaining folks for over 30 years, he know all the hits.

The Beatleman is from Lakeville, Massachusetts and if you meet him between sets, you'll notice the Liver-pool accent disappear and his New England one emerge.

Jimmy loves the relaxed atmosphere and friendly people of the Keys and plans to stay here permanently. He is looking for an affordable apartment so let's help him find one. Don't let me down!

You can contact him at (508) 961-7145 or visit his Facebook page The Beatleman, or email him at jimmyo137@gmail.com.
