The month of January usually brings us some brisk weather. But, sadly, as we all know, this Winter has been warm. I like to make soup this time of the year, so I will continue the tradition. This is a great onion soup recipe created by my husband. It is really delicious. Be sure to prepare it a day ahead. Enjoy!

PAUL'S FRENCH ONION SOUP

3 to 5 finely chopped garlic cloves I large diced onion

48 oz of beef broth

3 cans consume

1/4 stick of butter

5 large sliced onions (3 yellow - 2 sweet)

2 tablespoons catsup

2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce

sprinkle of salt

sprinkle of cayenne pepper

fresh ground black pepper

1/2 cup of sherry (optional)

Melt the butter in a stockpot. Sautee the garlic and diced onion until translucent. Add the remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil then simmer until the onions are tender. Serve with the French bread and cheese recipe below.

Cut French bread into 1/2 inch slices. Heat extra virgin olive oil in a sauce pan. Add garlic powder. Brown the bread on both sides. Spoon the soup in an oven proof bowl or crock. Place one slice of the browned French bread on top. Add slices of mozzarella, cheese, grated parmesan cheese, and a dash of paprika. Place under the broiler until the cheese melts.
