Bartender of the Month: Jamie Baisden at Bayside Grille

Welcome to paradise! If heaven were a place on earth it would be the Bayside Grille, according to this month's bartender of the month Jamie Baisden, who loves her job working the upstairs martini bar.

Why? Jamie's "office" has one of the Florida Keys' most jaw-dropping panoramic birds eye views of the Florida bay. Combine that with a 5 star Coconut Telegraph rated dining menu and excellent service.

Jamie hails from the San Fernando Valley in California where she graduated business college with a degree in computer science. Her travels took her to Alaska, where she worked as a breakfast buffet cook during summers and for the winters she came to the Keys, working seasonally as a cook for 15 years.

When an opportunity for a great apartment in Key Largo became available ten years ago, she jumped on it and moved here permanently. It wasn't until five years ago that she began bartending, and she has been with the Bayside Grille and Cafe Largo family now for one and a half years.

"This is my forever home. I look forward every day to coming to work," she says as we both gaze through the circular restaurants' sliding glass walls that frame the scenic bay in anticipation of tonight's sunset.

That's when I realized that many of the people I know that work for the sister restaurants have been there for many years. We can thank the owner, Robert DiGeorgio, for his talented and friendly crew.

The downstairs tiki bar has a completely different menu, happy hour and live music featuring headlining blues and jazz bands. If you are hungry for the best Italian cuisine, a few steps away is Cafe Largo, viva Italia!

Wonder what Jamie does in her free time? She cooks! She is an amazing pastry chef who enjoys baking birthday cakes for her friends. "I just like to make people happy," she says. Congratulations Jamie, you do, and that's why you're our pick this month!
