

Entertainers of the Month: The Taylor King Band

The Coconut Telegraph is proud to have the Taylor King Band as Entertainers of the Month. The band originated in Key Largo and they have branched out to perform their unique mix of well-known cover songs from various classic and current artists, along with their own exceptional and original Taylor King rock and roll music, all over south Florida. We love their original "On My Way" because it really captures the spirit of the Florida Keys. Prior to forming the Taylor King Band you may have heard them as King Kameleon or GiGi and the Stone Crabs. The band members now are Tony

Meet the Taylor King Band:

Voted Best Happy Hour in the Keys! 4-7 Daily

The Pilot House Restaurant is a local's favorite and a Key Largo landmark. You can choose to dine outside at our waterfront Glass Bottom Bar™ overlooking our five-star marina. Or, if you're looking for a more private experience consider dining indoors in air-conditioned comfort. All dining experiences offer a selection of beer, wine, cocktails, fresh local seafood and shellfish prepared a variety of ways, a broad choice of appetizers, sandwiches, land and sea entrées, and desserts. For the little ones we have a full kids' menu.

Episode: "Succulent Sandwiches"
This trip, Guy Fieri's diggin' into succulent sandwiches! In Oakland, a real-deal butchery stacking up killer cheesesteak and off-the-chain chicken. In Modesto, Calif., a funky food truck putting pastrami on pretzel bread and cooking pulled pork in root beer. And in Key Largo, Florida, a seafood staple servin' up a sandwich that's become a local legend. (Episode: DV2407H)
