Free Summer Retreat Offered for Preteens and Teens

Limited spaces are available for a free overnight camp for Monroe County youth ages 10-17, to be held August 5-10 at the Melvin M. Jelsema Children’s Center in Plantation Key.

“We’re happy to make this special experience available at no cost to qualifying youth,” said camp director Sebastian Rivera. This is the last of three camps held this summer, and youth attending the first two weeks had so much fun that they did not want to go home, Rivera said.

Daily outings like Sky Zone, snorkeling, and roller blading are funded in part by the Community Foundation of the Florida Keys. Recreation, Life Skills, and Educational programming is made possible thanks to the Ocean Reef Community Foundation. A United Way of the Florida Keys grant funds meals and snacks prepared by a chef, from fresh and healthy ingredients.

All other costs, including free transportation to and from the Middle or Lower Keys, are covered by the Helen’s Hope Foundation along with county, state and federal grants.

Youth at-risk of making bad decisions, who would benefit from a supervised, structured environment are encouraged to apply for the free camp. For more information, contact Sebastian Rivera at (786) 458-5174 or Christi Shortes at (305) 852-2882 x239
