Three men die on Christmas eve.

"To get into Heaven," St. Petersays, "you must have something on you that represents Christmas to get in."

The Englishman flicks on hislighter and says "It's a candle." St. Peter let's him pass.

The Welshman jingles his keys and says they're jingle bells. St Peter nods and lets him pass.

Then Paddy steps up to the door and pulls a bra out of his jacket pocket. St. Peter says, "What has this to do with Christmas?"

Paddy answers: "They're Carol's."

An elderly, but hardy cattleman from Texas once told a young female neighbor that if she wanted to live a long life, the secret was to sprinkle a pinch of gunpowder on her oatmeal each morning. She did this religiously and lived to the ripe old age of 103. She left behind 14 children, 30 grandchildren, 21 great grandchildren, five great great grandchildren and a 40-foot hole where the crematorium used to be.

- 1. Forget the past. You can't change it.
- 2. Forget the present I didn't get you one.

He turned to the 3rd mom, Joyce. "Your obsession is alcohol. This too shows itself in your child's name, Brandy."

At this point, the fourth mother, Mrs. Smith, quietly got up, took her little boy by the hand, and whispered, "Come on, Dick, this guy has no idea what he's talking about. Let's pick up Peter and Willy from school and go get dinner."

How cute and festive

During this holiday season, people of all faiths should remember these four great religious truths:

- 1. Muslims do not recognize Jews as God's Chosen People.
- 2. Jews do not recognize Jesus as the Messiah.
- 3. Protestants do not recognize the Pope as the leader of the Christian world.
- 4. Baptists do not recognize each other at the liquor store.

CO-WORKERS ARE LIKE CHRISTMAS LIGHTS. THEY ALL hang together, but half of them 🔊 DON'T WORK AND THE OTHER HALF ARE NOT SO BRIGHT.

Dear Santa, I've been good all year. Most of the time. Once in a while. Never mind, I'll buy my own stuff.

I'm starting up a new restaurant that serves curry poured over french fries. It's called "Curry On My Wayward Spud." And yes.. There'll be peas when you are done.

ABOUT THE CARTOONIST, RODNEY NELSON: After coming to the Keys many times, he moved here in 1969 at age 11. He tried different jobs before becoming a full-time artist in his late twenties. He enjoys the versatility it requires to survive as an artist in such a small community, and does airbrushing to glass etching; cartoons to fine art.

Grandma and Grandpa were visiting their kids overnight. When Grandpa found a bottle of Viagra in his son's medicine cabinet, he asked about using one of the pills. The son said, "I don't think you should take one Dad, they're very strong and very expensive.

"How much?" asked Grandpa "$10 a pill," came the answer.

"I don't care," said Grandpa, "I'd still like to try one, and before we leave in the morning, I'll put the money under the pillow."

Later the next day, the son found $110 under the pillow. He called his Grandpa and said, "I told you each pill was $10, not $110."

"I know," said Grandpa. "The hundred is from Grandma!"

"Cherish this moment, because clearly our parents are getting a divorce."

When students took the entrance exam for medical school, they were perplexed by this question: "rearrange the letters p-n-e-s-i to spell out the part of the human body that is most useful when erect."
