Coco'Nut' Funnies

I heard alcohol and sunlight kill Corona so if you see me naked and drunk in the yard I am doing medical research.

So far 2020 is like looking both ways before crossing the street and then getting hit by an airplane.

You know how when you go to a concert or show of some sort and the person on stage is like "HOW'S EVERYONE DOING TONIGHT?!?!?!" and the audience cheers back. Why? You're not answering the question, you're just yelling!. Imagine if we did that in daily conversation, "Hey Jeff, how are ya?" and Jeff just starts screaming and clapping in your face.

I never thought the comment "I wouldn't touch him/her with a 6 foot pole" would become a national policy, but here we are

There was an elderly man who wanted to make his younger wife pregnant. He went to the doctor to get a sperm count. The doctor told him to take a specimen cup home, fill it, and bring it back. The elderly man came back the next day; the specimen cup was empty and the lid was on it. The doctor asked, "What was the problem?" The elderly man said, "Well, I tried with my right hand... nothing. I tried with my left hand... nothing. So my wife tried with her right hand... nothing. Her left hand... nothing. Her mouth... nothing. Then my wife's friend tried. Right hand, left hand, mouth... still nothing. The doctor replied, "Wait a minute, did you say your wife's friend too?!" The elderly man answered, "Yeah, and we still couldn't get the lid off the specimen cup."

Post corona, romance novels might be something like this:

"Hands glistening with sanitizer, he reached out and gently removed her mask..

As he pressed closer against her, she felt a certain stiffness near his trouser pocket. "Is that what I think it is?" she asked breathlessly.

"Yes," he replied. "I brought my digital thermometer in case I need to take your temperature."

I drove into a gas station, to fill my car up $2.34, better price than normal! I noticed 2 police officers were watching a woman who was smoking while filling her car up.

I thought, is she stupid, crazy, or both, especially with the police standing RIGHT there?! I was minding my own business filled my car up and went inside to pay. As I was paying for my fuel, I heard someone screaming!!

I'm talking violent death screams! I looked outside and I saw that this woman's arm was on fire!!!! She was swinging her arm, running around and going nuts!! I ran outside, the police had the woman on the ground and they were putting the fire out!!

Then they put handcuffs on her and put her in the police car. I was a bit shocked, couldn't believe they arrested her, surely she ought to be in an ambulance, not a police car?! Me being nosy as I am, I asked the policeman what they were arresting her for.

He looked at me, dead serious, and said, "WAVING A FIRE ARM"!!

I heard the government is putting chips inside of people. I hope I get Doritos

A man and woman are having dinner in a restaurant.

A waitress who is serving at the next table, notices the man slowly sliding down the chair, until he disappears under the table, while the woman appears completely unconcerned, and appears not to have noticed!

The waitress, concerned, went over and discreetly whispered to the woman, "Pardon me ma'am, but I think your husband has just slid under the table!"

She replied, "No actually, he's just walked in the front door!"

Tensions run high in the produce department as no one dares to lick their fingers.

The Florida Department of Transportation (DOT) found over 200 dead crows on Highway 95 this past week, and there was concern that they may have died from the Coronavirus.

A veterinary epidemiologist examined the remains of all the crows, and, to everyone's relief, confirmed the problem was NOT Coronavirus (COVID-19).

The cause of death was actually from vehicular impacts. However, during analysis it was noted that varying colors of paints appeared on the bird's beaks and claws. By analyzing these paint residues it was found that 98% of the crows had been killed by impact with motorcycles, while only 2% were killed by cars.

The DOT then hired an Ornithological Behaviorist to determine if there was a cause for the disproportionate percentages of motorcycle strikes versus car strikes.

The Ornithological Behaviorist quickly concluded that when crows eat road kill, they always have a look-out crow to warn of danger.

They discovered that, while all the lookout crows could shout "Cah", not a single one could shout "Bike".
