Special Events at the Lorelei in February

Monday Feb 17th
11-3pm
Mark Healey
from Badfinger

Mark Healey is the bass player and a singer for the famous band Badfinger. The UK band is known for their hits like: Day After Day, Come and Get It, No Matter What and Baby Blue.

When Mark is not touring with Badfinger, he performs a fantastic solo show that features the band's staples and his own work, and covers from the 60s to today. Mark is touring to promote his new album "Inside Out" and will be at Lorelei for one show only. This is a "don't miss" show!

Friday Feb 21st, 5-9pm
Michael Trixx's 20-Year Anniversary Show, featuring Brothers of Others

Michael Trixx (featured on NBC's America's Got Talent) is a professional magician who combines his two passions, magic and rock 'n' roll to create an exciting, high energy show guaranteed to entertain both young and old. The show includes the produc- tion and vanishes of 10 live birds, levitations, a confetti blizzard, fire and so much more! Michael is a mainstay of the Keys, and really honed his craft after moving to the Keys back in 2000. February 21st marks the 20-year anniversary of Michael's first performance at The Lorelei. The Miami band "Brothers of Others" are making a special appear- ance. Michael will try out some new tricks, bring back some old favorites, and dazzle you with a show like no other!

Tumble out of Bed and Stumble to the Theater! Key Players are Working "9 to 5"

Key Players is at it again with a monster Broadway show! Dolly Parton's 9 to 5 The Musical is coming to Key Largo in February! This is their biggest show (with the biggest budget) since Shrek the Musical. Twenty actors rehearsing 4 days a week, plus tons of cos- tumes, props, set pieces and a mega projector! Fabulous singing, dancing and acting will keep you thoroughly entertained and singing along.

Franklin Hart (John Rudolph) is finally put in his place by Doralee (Mary-Margaret Dale)

frazzled divorcée Judy Bernly and sexy secretary Doralee Rhodes — to turn the tables on their "sexist, egotistical, lying, hypocriti- cal bigot" of a boss. The story follows the original movie with fabulous music written by Dolly herself. In fact, her presence will be felt with the 25' wide video

Doralee (Mary-Margaret Dale)

Based on the hit 1980 film, which starred Lily Tomlin, Jane Fonda and the stage show's composer/ lyricist Dolly Parton, the Broadway musical adapta- tion follows office manager Violet Newstead, who joins her fellow co-workers —

Doralee, Judy and Violet enjoying their new friendship and dreams they are adding to the performance.

So, tumble out of bed and stumble into the the- atre! The show opens Thursday, February 20th and runs for two weekends only!

Center in Key Largo. Tickets are $20 at the ticket out- lets, and $23 online and at the door. You can buy tickets in advance at the following locations: Key Largo Choco- lates and Ice Cream, Shear Paradise, and the PostNet Store. Tickets are also available through the Key Player's Facebook page.

This time of the year you can find delicious pears in the supermar- ket or local produce stand. I came up with this very easy recipe of a pear compote. It would be great on short cake, angelfood cake, or vanilla ice cream. Try it, I think you'll enjoy it!

PEAR COMPOTE

3 to 4 ripe pears
¾ cup brown sugar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon

Core the pears and chop into ½ inch cubes. Place all of the ingredients in a saucepan and stir until well blended. Cover the pan and stew on medium low heat until the mixture starts to bubble. Reduce heat to simmer and stir occasionally until the pears are soft to almost mushy; approxi- mately 25 minutes. Let cool and refrigerate until ready to use.

Sandi's recipes are featured here monthly. For previous issues go to theconchtelegraph.com
