

Letter to the Editor

Dear Coconut Telegraph,

God bless you for the beautiful radio I won at one of your recent fundraisers. I am 85 years old and live at Moose Haven. All of my family has passed away. I am all alone now and it's nice to know that someone is thinking of me. God bless you for your kindness to an old forgotten lady.

My roommate is 95 and has always had her own radio, but before I received one, she would never let me listen to hers, even when she was napping. The other day her radio fell off the night stand and broke into a lot of pieces. It was awful and she was in tears.

Her distress over the broken radio touched me and I knew this was God's way of answering my prayers. She asked me if she could listen to mine, and I told her to kiss my ass.

Thank you for that opportunity.

Sincerely,
Agnes

EDITORIAL, continued from page 2

I live too far from Enrico's Pizza to get the world's best delivered to my door, and I had just spent the day chained to my desk writing articles and doing research and I was craving a pizza but too tired to get ready and make the trip to the Big Chill... so I decided to call Domino's - big mistake! The woman who answered the phone had such a thick accent I couldn't understand her. I've lived in the Keys for 32 years and only speak English, but over the years I've learned to communicate with most non-english speaking people, but not this one. I repeated myself about 7 times and kept saying, "Sorry, I do not understand you." Finally the woman got frustrated and hung up on me! So, I have developed a list on how to communicate with Domino's.

25 Ways to Order a Pizza from Domino's

1. Stutter the letter "p".
2. Terminate the call with, "Remember, we never had this conversation."
3. Ask what the order taker is wearing.
4. Tell the order taker you're depressed. Get him/her to cheer you up.
5. Act like you know the order taker from somewhere. Say "Bedwetters' Camp, right?"
6. Rent a pizza.
7. Ask if you get to keep the pizza box. When they say yes, heave a sigh of relief.
8. Tell them to double check to make sure your pizza is, in fact, dead.
9. Psychoanalyze the order taker.
10. Order two toppings, then say, "No, they'll start fighting".
11. Call to complain about service. Later, call back to say you were drunk and didn't mean it.
12. Tell the order taker to tell the manager to tell his supervisor he's fired.
13. Ask if the pizza is organically grown.
14. State your order and say that's as far as this relationship is going to get.
15. Ask them if they are familiar with the term "spanking a pizza." Make up a description to go with the term. Ask that this be done to your pizza.
16. Put them on hold.
17. Teach the order taker a secret code. Use the code on all subsequent orders.
18. Haggle.
19. Order a one-inch pizza.
20. When they say "Will that be all?", snicker and say "We'll find out, won't we?"
21. Ask how many dolphins were killed to make that pizza.
22. Dance all around the word "pizza". Avoid saying it at all costs. If he/she says it, say "Please don't mention that word."
23. If he/she suggests a side order, ask why he/she is punishing you.
24. Order a steamed pizza.
25. If any of the above practices are rejected by the order taker say, in your best pouty voice, "Last guy let me do it."
